

Abridged curriculum vitae

Joseph John Landsberg, B.Sc., M.Sc. (Natal), Ph.D.(Bristol)

‘Withycombe’ Church Lane, Mt Wilson, NSW 2786. Australia

Fellow of the Finnish Academy of Science and Letters.

Retired from CSIRO, December 1998.

Currently Adjunct Professor, University of NSW, Adjunct Professor, Charles Sturt University, NSW.

Senior appointments held:

April - December, 1993; May -August, 1994: Senior Visiting Scientist/Program Manager; NASA (USA), Science Division, MTPE Terrestrial Ecology and Oceanography Branch. Program Scientist -BOREAS program..

October 1990 - March 1993: Director, Natural Resources Management; Murray-Darling Basin Commission.

August 1986 - December 1987: Acting Director, CSIRO Institute of Biological Resources.

June 1981 - July 1986: Chief, CSIRO Division of Forest Research

Other appointments included: member of the Australian Reserve Bank Committee of Review for the Rural Credits Research Fund. (Chairman, 1986.); 1989 - 1990: member of the Working Group on Environmental Research; Australian Science and Technology Council (ASTECC); 1997, 2000, consultant to Aracruz Cellulose, Brazil, on forest (growth and yield) modelling

Publications: >100 journal articles, books, book chapters, reports. Edited conference proceedings as books, published 2 textbooks (Physiological ecology of forest production. (1986) Academic Press. pp 198; Applications of Physiological Ecology to Forest Management (1997) with S.T.Gower. Academic Press. pp 354)